February 2023 D21 DCM Report

- I haven't seen any requests for the PRAASA scholarships. Did I miss something?
- Conference Agenda Topics are available on CNIA.org. Click on Area07->on pulldown→Click on Delegates Page→Scroll down to Current. There you will find the Conference Agenda and the link to Agenda Background Materials. The password is HowItWorks
    - Need to complete your informed group conscience prior to the Pre Conference Assy
        - Please plan attending and register and make any plans NOW
    - REVIEWING AGENDA TOPICS WITH YOUR GROUP AND PROVIDING THE GROUP CONSCIENCE ON THEM IS THE PRIMARY TASK as a GSR, if you need support please let myself of anyone of the GSRs with previous experience.
    - Please begin to identify and schedule your process to get informed feedback from your groups. I sent an email from the Delegate with suggestions on how to prep.
    - The local live topics workshop is 11-Mar, however, there are several Zoom/Hybrid options if you want to attend earlier or more than one
- Literature prices are increasing from GSO. Details sent via email on 20-Feb. Let me know if you didn't get it.
- I was unable to attend the ACM meeting, but did read the minutes
    - Agenda Topics, see above
    - 2600 stories were sent for consideration for inclusion in the 5th Edition
    - 6 Chapters of the Plain Language version of the Big Book have been written and are under committee review
    - GSO will need to dip into their Prudent Reserve next year to cover basic expenses. Please encourage your groups to review their split percentages to determine if possible to send a larger piece to GSO
    - The General Service Board Chair resigned. Details are considered confidential personnel issues (just like most corporations). I have no idea what the issue was.
- I am taking meetings into the Placer County Jail in Auburn, facilities are opening. Please share this with your groups. The list of H&I facilities are on the board in the Auburn Fellowship along with the contact person.
- I am all booked for PRAASA over 03-Mar weekend and can't wait!
